Lesson Generalization: A word that has 1 syllable, 1 vowel, and 1 final consonant is called a 1 + 1 + 1 word: set. A word that has a single vowel in a final accented syllable with one final consonant is called a VAC word: upset. Double the final consonant of a 1 + 1 + 1 word or a VAC word before a suffix that begins with a vowel. Do not double the final consonant before a suffix that begins with a consonant.

The word pairs in the first column are 1 + 1 + 1 words. The word pairs in the second column are VAC words.

A.

1. Find the 1 + 1 + 1 words in the list. Write the words with their suffixes as shown in the word list.

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

2. Find the VAC words in the list. Write the words with their suffixes as shown in the word list.

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

B. On a separate sheet of paper, scramble the words in the spelling list (those with suffixes). Trade lists with a partner and unscramble your partner's words.
